Federal Budget 2010 Issues For SMEs

The Federal Treasurer, Mr Wayne Swan, presented the Rudd Government's budget on 11th May 2010. The Treasurer indicated the budget was a "no frills budget - to put Australia back in surplus in 2 years". This special edition of Business Plus+ incorporates a summary of matters within the Federal Budget, the Henry Review and other initiatives that have commenced in 2010 that may affect SME operators. Other than those items which have already commenced in 2010, none of the items contained within the budget, nor the Henry Review, will become law until the budget has been passed by the House of Representatives and the Senate, and signed by the Executive Council.

Key 2010 Federal Budget Outcomes

The Government has introduced the third tranche of its earlier commitment for reductions in personal income tax rates from 1 July 2010. Personal income tax rates, which apply for the 2010/11 financial year, are:

Taxable Income ($)	Tax Rate (%)
0 – 6000	0
6001 – 37,000	15c for each $1 over $6,001
37,001 – 80,000	$4,650 plus 30c for each $1 over $37,001
80,001 – 180,000	$17,550 plus 37c for each $1 over $80,001
180,001+	$54,550 plus 45c for each $1 over $180,001

In addition, there is a Medicare Levy payable of 1.5% plus a Medicare Levy Surcharge may apply.

- There is no change to the corporate tax rate in 2010/11 - continues at 30% (however, changes are planned for small business from 2012/13).
- Superannuation Contribution Tax continues at 15%
- Superannuation Funds Tax - continues at 15%

Risks In The Budget Strategy

The budget has been prepared in uncertain times. Matters which could affect the budget outcomes include:

- The turmoil in Greece, particularly if this spreads to other European countries.
- The expectation that commodity exports from Australia to China and other Asian countries will continue to rise.
- The Government has made a big punt on the continuation of the resources boom.
- The budget expectation is that interest rates will continue to rise.
- The budget is assuming a 7.5% increase in dwellings.
- There are considerable concerns that the resources super profit tax, which is to be determined on a project by project basis, will affect SME operators who may be caught up in resource companies scaling back exploration, repairs and maintenance, capital expenditure and research and development.

Superannuation

The superannuation contribution levels are:

Taxpayers Aged	2009/10	2010/11	2011/12
50 and over	$50,000	$50,000	$50,000
under 50	$25,000	$25,000	$25,000

- The Government has announced, as part of the Henry Review announcements, changes to the superannuation contribution levels.
- From the 1st July 2012 a taxpayer aged over 50, who has a superannuation fund balance of less than $500,000, can contribute $50,000 per annum to superannuation.
- The Government has announced, following the release of the Henry Review that the superannuation guarantee contributions will increase from 9% to 12% of employees' wages and salaries from 2013/14 to 2019/20.

The increase in 2013/14 will be 0.25%; in 2014/15 another 0.25% and will continue to increase 0.5% in each subsequent year until 2019/20 when the superannuation guarantee will have reached 12%.
